Today's Interview: Eamonn Kelly, Peter Leyden, Bryan Sager, and Steve Weber A Panel from the Global Business Network Contributors: What's Next? ... Exploring the New Terrain for Business

On this week's Tech Nation, Dr. Moira Gunn speaks with a panel of experts from the Global Business Network: Eamonn Kelly, Peter Leyden, Bryan Sager And Steve Weber. They will talk about the world today: the effects of the Internet, the changing economic power balance between women and men outside the United States, the world reception to bio-technology vs. nano-technology, the uneven landscapes of China, India and Africa, and the future of organized Religion and personal spirituality in a hyper-mediated world. They will also talk about the some 50 contributors to their new book: "What's Next? ... Exploring the New Terrain for Business
